Rami Obaid

Student / Software Developer

I am goal-oriented and dedicated .NET developer in training with a strong interest in system development and modern web technologies. Experienced in C#, ASP.NET, React, Angular, and SQL Server, with an understanding of the entire development process.
I enjoy collaborating in environments where knowledge sharing and problem-solving are key, while also taking ownership and responsibility for my tasks.
My goal is to grow as a developer within an organization where I can contribute to both technical solutions and a positive team culture.
